Case No. A02-0103-17 CR (HRH)

Suheil Zorrilla Garcia

On July 15, 2005, the above-named was placed on supervised release for a period of three years. The defendant has adjusted well to supervision and has complied with the rules and regulations of supervised release and is no longer in need of supervision. Since the beginning of supervision, the offender has maintained contact with the probation service, has maintained a residence, and maintained employment. It appears that Ms. Garcia has complied with all of her conditions of supervision and her only known violation was her failure to timely notify the probation officer of recent police contact. Therefore, the defendant has addressed all of her conditions of supervised release, paid the $700 special assessment in this case, and would like to terminate early and relocate to New York in order to be closer to family. Therefore, it is recommended that Suheil Zorrilla Garcia be discharged from supervision. The U.S. Attorney's Office has been consulted and has no objection to an early termination from supervision.
